2019 PERFORMANCE SCHEDULE (WINTER/SPRING)

JAN 26

ROBERT JONES

An inspirational storyteller and multi-instrumentalist who celebrates the history, humor and power of traditional Roots music. His performances interweave a deep love for traditional African American and American music, cultural diversity, and the sacred.

FEB 23

KIRSTEN MAXWELL and KIM MOBERG SPLIT BILL!

We're excited for Kirsten Maxwell's return to the Rose Garden; crystalline vocals, ebullient stage persona and songs that left us wanting more. Adding to the night is Kim Moberg, winner of our 26th annual Performing Songwriter Competition.

MAR 23

THE MEADOWS BROTHERS

Gut-bucket, dirt-road, twangy spirit takes hold in a new road-tested collection of original songs recalling music like that of the Louvin Brothers. This pair bring a tangle of rich imagery, atmospheric narratives, and a fine tapestry of folk-rock-infused Americana.

Roots/Bluegrass

APR 13

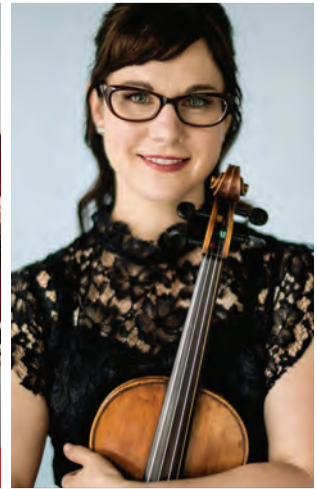

30TH ANNIVERSARY SHOW!

THE KENNEDYS

Two of our favorites return to the Rose Garden, helping us to celebrate our 30th season! Pete and Maura Kennedy celebrate their twentieth anniversary both as a band and a married couple, taking Dylan's dictum "don't look back" to heart; writing and recording forty new songs!

Folk-Rock/Americana

MAY 18

APRIL VERCH and the 27th Performing Songwriter Competition

Ottawa Valley fiddler, step-dancer, singer and all-around wonderful performer returns with a new dynamic trio. An unassuming delight, April's talents are many, gaining worldwide renown.
